WHAT MAKES AUM GREAT?

EXCELLENCE SINCE 1967

AWARD WINNING

Auburn University at Montgomery earned recognition from U.S. News & World Report and Princeton Review for the quality of its academic programs in 2022. U.S. News ranked AUM 22nd among regional universities in the South for the quality of its undergraduate teaching and 38th among public comprehensive universities in the South. AUM's College of Business ranks in the top 5% of business schools in the world, as accredited by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International, and was rated a "Best Business School" by The Princeton Review.

WIDESPREAD DIVERSITY

For the 2021-2022 academic year, AUM enrolled 4,632 undergraduate and 579 graduate students. The student body is 65 percent female and 34 percent male. Forty-five percent of students are white, 40 percent are black, 2 percent are Asian, 1 percent are Hispanic, and 5 percent are international students.

TOP DEGREE PROGRAMS

The most popular bachelor's degrees granted are business administration, nursing, liberal arts, biology, elementary education and secondary education. The university's nursing and medical laboratory sciences programs boast placement rates of more than 90 percent. AUM offers a joint doctorate program with Auburn University in Public Administration, and now offers a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree.

AUM HAS MANY DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI. HERE ARE A FEW. VIEW MORE AT WWW.AUM.EDU/STORIES.

River Region United Way announced Jannah Bailey as their new CEO and president. Under Bailey's leadership, the organization plans to become a community hub for area non-profits. Bailey was awarded a bachelor of science degree in Justice and Public Safety from Auburn University at Montgomery in 1983.

Savannah Finney teaches at Floyd Middle Magnet School. She graduated from Auburn University at Montgomery in 2019 and started teaching immediately. She teaches seventh and eighth grade English both in person and virtually and has found innovative ways to reach her students. "Pandemic teaching was so difficult, but I felt like I excelled at it because I'm interested in the technology, I watch things like YouTube that the kids watch and I have a similar sense of humor to theirs," she said. Finney says this difficult experience has been rewarding, and as a young teacher she looks forward to the years to come.

2022 WARHAWKS FRESH OUT OF THE NEST:

Alexandria Lewis of Prattville, who earned a degree in marketing, has accepted a position as a skilled trades recruiter for Aerotek.

Originally from Long Beach, California, Trenisha Holmes was raised in Montgomery. She recently earned her bachelor's degree in nursing and now works in the Medical Intensive Care Unit at Baptist Medical Center South. She eventually plans to become a certified registered nursing anesthetist.

Stanneka Malone-Kyser completed her degree in interdisciplinary studies with a concentration in teaching and learning, and a minor in psychology. The Mobile native is working as a K-4 teacher in her hometown at Dauphin Way.

Trenton Crenshaw from Mobile, Alabama recently earned his nursing degree and is working locally with Jackson Hospital's Tower Med-Surg Unit.

EMPLOYER ENGAGEMENT OVERVIEW

AUM's Career Development Center has many ways for our employer partners to connect with AUM students, graduates, and alumni. Our goal is to get our students the jobs they need, while also supplying our partners with the employees they are looking for!

At AUM, our students study hard and work hard. We work tirelessly as an institution to grow the kinds of professionals that will make a difference wherever they go. The CDC wants to help YOU hire these star students. Whether virtually or in person, the CDC welcomes you to campus!

CAREER FAIRS

The AUM Career Development Center hosts Career Fairs each spring semester. Employers can register for a table and set up any way they choose. Students from all majors and classifications are invited to Career Fairs to network with employers. Employers are welcome to interview or otherwise pursue hiring any students interacted with at fairs. For more information on when fairs will be held, email career-dev@aum.edu.

While the majority of AUM CDC events occur in person and on campus, we are more than willing to assist employers with other forms of recruitment. If your organization is interested in virtual events, we are able to coordinate those as well.

SPECIALIZED CAREER FAIRS

In addition to our all-majors Career Fair, the CDC hosts specialized career fairs based on industry or career cluster. These are typically held in the fall semester of each year.

Past specialized career fairs have focused on: government, STEM, and hospitality careers. We welcome you to attend any specialized fairs aligned with your organization.

INFO SESSIONS

Information Sessions allow employers the unique opportunity to recruit students in a personalized environment, depending on employer needs.

INFO SESSION OCCUR IN MANY WAYS:

UNIVERSITY WIDE EVENTS

These events are hosted in an on-campus meeting room and openly marketed to any student wishing to attend. The employer can share its company culture, hiring processes, and goals.

CLASSROOM PRESENTATIONS

These events typically take place inside the classroom of a selected department and seeks to recruit students from specified majors.

TAYLOR TABLES

Employers are set up in the hub of student life, Taylor Student Center, to engage with students from differing majors.

STUDENT INTERVIEW SUITE

AUM offers a newly renovated Interview Suite for students, faculty, and employers to hold interviews, whether virtually or in person.

USE OF THE STUDENT INTERVIEW SUITE

The distraction-free zone provided by the Student Interview Suite is available daily by reservation for students to participate in Zoom or virtual interviews/meetings.

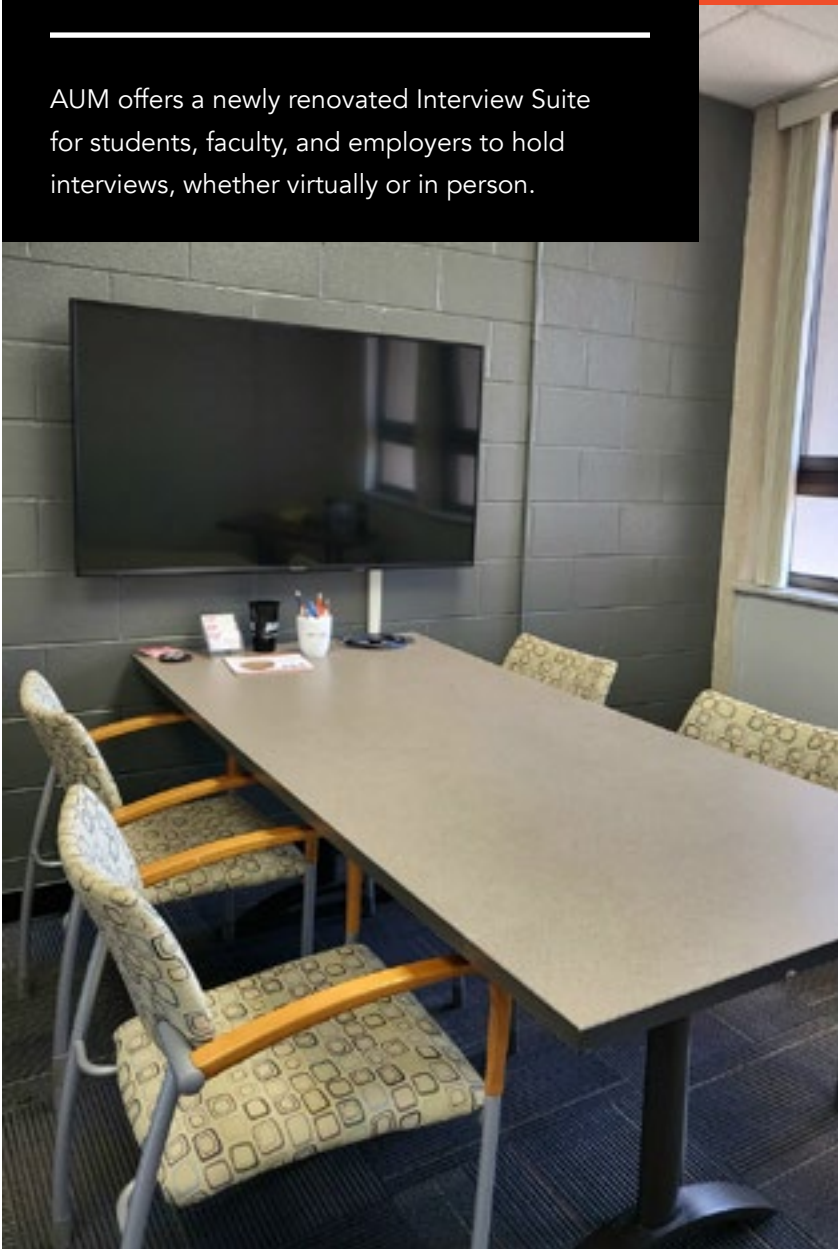

Employers are also welcome to reserve the space for on-campus interviews.

MOCK INTERVIEW PROGRAM

The Mock Interview Coaching program provides students:

- Daily appointments with a Career Services Specialist.
- Once-a-month events with AUM faculty or visiting employers.
- Once-a-semester Interview Days featuring panels of employers.

If you would like to be a part of any of our Mock Interview Program offerings or use our Interview Suite for on campus interviews, please contact cdc-employers@aum.edu.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY AT MONTGOMERY

EXPERIENTIAL EDUCATION AND ENGAGEMENT CENTER

The Experiential Education and Engagement Center (EEEC) is an on-campus resource with a mission to increase student retention, persistence, and graduation rates through early engagement. We connect students to campus and the community through high-impact practices including peer mentoring, undergraduate research, internships, and service learning. Additionally, we provide support and development opportunities for faculty and staff.

The Experiential Education and Engagement Center actively seeks to develop and enhance partnerships with surrounding community organizations to provide AUM students additional experiential learning opportunities, such as internships and service learning.

WHAT IS EXPERIENTIAL EDUCATION?

Experiential education is a teaching philosophy in which students are engaged in hands-on experiences that allow them to apply the knowledge they learned in the classroom.

These experiences help further develop the problem-solving skills of students. They also provide them with a deeper understanding of their chosen career field, making them better prepared for life after graduation.

Please contact the EEEEC by email at eeec@aum.edu or call 334-244-3153.

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

OFFICE OF STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AND SUCCESS

THE OFFICE OF STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AND SUCCESS IS HERE TO HELP YOU CONNECT WITH COLLEGE OF BUSINESS STUDENTS AND ALUMNI ALONGSIDE THE AUM CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER.

The College of Business will help you connect with students majoring in business fields and graduate students pursuing master's degrees in Accounting, Business Administration, Health Care Administration, and Information Systems.

If you have job shadowing, internship, or full-time professional positions for business students, we encourage you to post these opportunities on Handshake and participate in the College of Business career fairs hosted in October and March.

For more information about participating in College of Business career fairs or offering job shadowing and internship opportunities to students, please contact the Associate Dean, Dr. Christine Harrington, by phone at 334-244-3513 or email at charrin1@aum.edu.
