WHO ENFORCES TITLE IX?

The United States Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) is in charge of enforcing Title IX. Information regarding OCR can be found at www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/index.html or by calling 1-800-421-3481.

Retaliation:

A fear of retaliation is one of the reasons people experiencing sexual harassment, sex/gender discrimination, or sexual misconduct may be reluctant to report the incidents. The University strictly prohibits retaliation against any person for using this reporting procedure, or for filing, testifying, assisting, or participating in any investigation or proceeding involving allegations of sex/gender discrimination. Any person who violates this policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including employment termination or academic dismissal. Retaliation includes intimidation, threats, harassment and any other adverse action threatened or taken against any complainant or third party because of the complaint or participation in the investigation.

COMPLAINTS UNDER TITLE IX AUBURN UNIVERSITY AT MONTGOMERY

The University encourages those who have experienced sex/gender discrimination to report these offenses to Leslie Meadows, the Title IX Coordinator. Ms. Meadows serves as the central reference person for information regarding reporting and investigating Title IX complaints. Sexual misconduct offenses may also be reported to the Campus Police at 334.244.3424. Complaints must be submitted in writing not more than 300 days after the incident(s) in question. For good cause and at the University's discretion, the writing requirement or the 300 day time limitation may be waived.
