

AUM Communications Policy

Outlook Web Access E-mail is the approved means of communication of university policy changes, news and other information vital to students.

Such communications from the AUM administration and others will be sent to all AUM-issued student e-mail accounts. It is imperative that students check their e-mail regularly as some information may be time-sensitive.