Research Council Table of Awards & Grants

Name	Description	Duration of the Award	Important Dates	Award and Matching Funds
Regular Faculty GIA	Program to support faculty members with their research agenda. Proposals are competitive and the review is based on research design, methodology, budget with a sound justification, and strong project management. Preference is given to proposals that lead to external funding.	The award is for two years with no option of extension beyond the second year. The start date is October 1st with end date of September 30th of the following year.	Each year, the Call is distributed electronically in April with deadline of August 30th.	Up to $5,000 No matching funds are required
New Faculty GIA	Program to support new faculty members with their research agenda. Proposals are competitive and the review is based on research design, methodology, budget with a sound justification, and strong project management. Preference is given to proposals that lead to external funding.	The award is for 20 month with no option of extension beyond the second year. The start date is on February 1st with end date of September 30th of the following year.	Each year, the Call is distributed electronically in September with deadline on second week in December.	Up to $5,000 No matching funds are required
Equipment GIA	Program to support faculty members who need equipment in order to conduct ongoing research. Preference is given to proposals that lead to external funding.	The award is for one year with no option of extension beyond the first year. The start date is October 1st with end date of September 30th of the same fiscal year.	Each year, the Call is distributed electronically in April with deadline of August 30th.	Up to $15,000 Matching funds of 20% of the total cost is mandatory
Ida Belle Young GIA	Program to support faculty members with projects that have emphasis on Research Infrastructure and/or the ability to generate external funding.	The award is for one year with no option of extension beyond the first year. The start date is October 1st with end date of September 30th of the same fiscal year.	Each year, the Call is distributed electronically in April with deadline of August 30th.	Minimum $20,000 with Maximum $60,000 No matching funds are required
			Each year, the Call is	$7,500/year for

Name	Description	Duration of the Award	Important Dates	Award and Matching Funds
Distinguished Research Professor Award (DRP)	Program to Honor individuals at the Professor level who have distinguished themselves regarding research.	The award is for two years	distributed electronically in January with deadline of February 28th. The Award will be presented in a luncheon banquet in April in honor of the recipient of the award.	two years The award can be in a form of a supplemental check, and/or professional account
Developing Scholar Award (DSA)	Program to Honor Assistant Professors or Associate Professors who have made outstanding contributions to research.	The award is for two years	Each year, the Call is distributed electronically in January with deadline of February 28th. The Award will be presented in a luncheon banquet in April in honor of the recipient of the award.	$3,500/year for two years The award can be in a form of a supplemental check, and/or professional account
Faculty Research Conference Registration Fund	Program to support faculty members with their conference registration fee. The support is not for membership, meals, or other travel expenses. To be eligible, the faculty member must be the presenter (usually the first author) of the research presentation.	This is an open/ended program. Each faculty can apply one time per fiscal year.	There is no deadline for this program. It can be applied all through each fiscal year.	$300 per faculty per year. Back up documentation is required.
Faculty Research Publication Fund	Program to support faculty members with research publication costs.	This is an open/ended program. Faculty can apply multiple times.	There is no deadline for this program. It can be applied all through each fiscal year.	The Research Council only supports 1/3 of the cost of publication up to $300. Departments and Schools must provide the other 2/3 of the cost.

Name	Description	Duration of the Award	Important Dates	Award and Matching Funds
Student Research Fellowship	Program to support students with their research agenda. Eligible student applicant must work with a faculty mentor on a research project. Publication costs related to the presentation will also be considered.	This is an open/ended program. The award is for one academic semester.	There is no deadline for this program. Students can apply a month prior to start date of research project.	Up to $400 per student. Matching funds are required.
Faculty Subvention GIA	Program to support faculty members who have had a monograph accepted for publication by an university press affiliated with an accredited university.	This is an open /ended program.	There is no deadline for this program. It can be applied all through each academic year.	Up to $3,000 per subvention. Matching funds of 40% of total cost by department and school is mandatory.
Poster Printing Services	Program to support faculty members and students with their requests for poster printing services for research presentation at professional meetings.	This is an open/ended program.	There is no deadline but requests must be submitted a week in advance.	No cost for this program
Summer Research Grants	Program (summer release) to support faculty members who wish to utilize summertime to advance their scholarly work on projects that will lead to external funding.	Summer semester	Each year, the Call is distributed electronically in February with deadline of March 20th	This award will cover 20% of summer salary.

2.4.2015