To file a complaint with the University, please complete and submit this form. The form may be submitted online or in person to the Office of Human Resources. If you are unable for any reason to complete this form and would like to make a verbal complaint, please call AUM Title IX Coordinator Leslie Meadows at 334-244-3641 or email lmeadows@aum.edu.

Although the University cannot commit to keeping a Title IX complaint confidential because of the University's obligation to investigate the complaint, the University will use its best efforts not to disseminate information concerning the complaint beyond those who have a legitimate need to know.

Please feel free to contact our office if you have any questions regarding the process for filing or investigating complaints of sex/gender discrimination and harassment.

AUM’s Non-Discrimination Statement
In compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and other federal, state, and local laws, Auburn University at Montgomery does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex (which includes sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression), religion, national origin, age, veteran status, genetic information, or disability in admission or application to financial aid programs, educational programs or activities, or employment processes. Leslie Meadows is the Title IX Coordinator designated by the University to coordinate its efforts to comply with Title IX.

Deputy Title IX Coordinators include Tonya Dupree, 334-244-3641 and Lindsay Kennington, 334-244-3641.
Title IX Sex/Gender Discrimination & Harassment Complaint Form

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S. Code § 1681) mandates that no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. When the form has been completed and signed by you, and then signed by the Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy, your complaint has been properly received and noted by the University. We will provide you with a copy of this form as well as complete information about the Title IX complaint process.

| The Title IX Coordinator and/or designee investigate complaints of discrimination or harassment based on sex/gender. |
| The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for overseeing all Title IX complaints and identifying and addressing any patterns or systematic problems that arise during the review of such complaints. |
| The Title IX Coordinator also ensures that adequate, reliable, and impartial investigations are conducted on all complaints. |
| The Title IX Coordinator is available to meet with students and employees as needed. |

WHO ENFORCES TITLE IX?
The United States Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights (OCR) is responsible for enforcing Title IX. Information regarding OCR can be found at www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/index.html or by calling 1-800-421-3481.

Retaliation:
A fear of retaliation is one of the reasons people experiencing sexual harassment, sex/gender discrimination, or sexual misconduct may be reluctant to report the incidents. The University strictly prohibits retaliation against any person for using this reporting procedure, or for filing, testifying, assisting, or participating in any investigation or proceeding involving allegations of sex/gender discrimination. Any person who violates this policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including employment termination or academic dismissal. Retaliation includes intimidation, threats, harassment and any other adverse action threatened or taken against any complainant or third party because of the complaint or participation in the investigation.

COMPLAINTS UNDER TITLE IX AUBURN UNIVERSITY AT MONTGOMERY
The University encourages those who have experienced sex/gender discrimination to report these offenses to Leslie Meadows, the Title IX Coordinator. Ms. Meadows serves as the central reference person for information regarding reporting and investigating Title IX complaints. Complaints may also be reported to the Campus Police at 334.244.3424.
