

Graduate Year One - Career Planning Checklist

Schedule a Career Advising appointment with the CDC to create a grad school Career Action Plan based on your goals.

Join Handshake! Explore all of the tools and resources in Handshake and start building your Handshake profile.

Join LinkedIn! Build your online profile, connect with other professionals, including program alumni, and start to follow influential people in your career field.

Follow the Career Development Center on Instagram!
@aum_career.

Identify one or more professional organizations related to your field (become member or attend networking event).

Seek experiential learning opportunities, such as internships, undergraduate research and service learning. Schedule an Internship Search Assistance appointment with the CDC, and research CPT usage requirements (for international students).