Other Pedagogical Experience and Service

Faculty Mentor, Savannah State University (2016-2021; 2022-2024), in this role assigned by my department chair, I have mentored new tenure-track, full-time instructor, and temporary part-time faculty in acclimating them to University culture, supported them in learning institutional processes and technology platforms, and been a resource for navigating student problems and conflicts.

Teaching Assistant Mentor, Florida State University in lieu of an assigned section of ENC 1101 or 1102. During the 2005-2006 academic year, I was appointed by the Director of First-Year Writing at Florida State University to serve as a mentor to new graduate instructors teaching composition. In that capacity I met regularly with new TAs to discuss the challenges they faced as new teachers, effective classroom activities, how to manage classroom discussions, and how to provide productive criticism in graded assignments.
